

Patriot Industries Sponsors EECO Has Heart Sporting Clay Tournament

Louisa, VA— October 24, 2018 — Patriot was proud to be a Platinum Sponsor for EECO's 4th annual EECO Has Heart Sporting Clay Tournament at Drake Landing, NC. The annual event raises money for the National Heart Association and raised over $42,000, exceeding last year's goal!

"This event brings us all together for some competitive shooting clay fun, networking, and to support a great cause", says Tom Click President and CEO of Patriot Industries. "Patriot works closely with EECO and their contractors on mission critical projects, and this is a good way to stay connected and meet new people." Isabelle Puryear, Patriot Inside Sales Director continued, "we are looking forward to another successful event next year and appreciate the tremendous amount of time and energy that goes into putting something like this together. This is definitely a great way to support an important charity, while having some fun with our partners."

EECO was established in 1926 in Raleigh, NC and expanded into Richmond, VA in 1930. EECO continues to grow throughout the Southeast and is now one of the largest Rockwell Automation distributors in the nation. For more information, please visit www.eecoonline.com.
